

Bronchoscopy On Air

WebTv project

The Greek Web tv channel of HTA-IP with the co-operation of EABIP and under the auspices of the Hellenic Thoracic Society is proud to invite you to the 3rd broadcast of the project “Bronchoscopy on Air” this time regarding A1 AT deficiency and its many genetic, diagnostic and management challenges.

You can watch and discuss the event following the links on the websites below:

<https://webtv.htaip.gr>

<https://bronchoscopy.gr>

Program Director: Grigoris Stratakos, MD — Hellenic Training Association for Interventional Pulmonology

«A1 Antitrypsin Deficiency: Genetic background, Diagnosis, Augmentation treatment and Therapeutic challenges. The long journey of a patient»

Saturday 22 October 2022 at 17:00 -18:15 CET

At <https://webtv.htaip.gr>

Chair persons: Prof. St. Loukidis, M.Munavvar, Gr. Stratakos (Introduction of the speakers and coordination of the discussion)

- Introduction to the disease: Prevalence, demographics and pathophysiology. Diagnostic challenges. (Prof N.Rovina) 20 min
- Recent advances in augmentation treatment, prevention and management (Prof. A. Papaioannou) 20 min
- Bronchoscopic Lung Volume Reduction Approach. Case examples. Is there enough evidence? (Dr. Ph.Emmanouil) 20min

Following the presentations, questions from the audience will be discussed by all the panel members.